Notice Concerning Organizational Change and Adoption of Executive Officer System at Asset Management Company

CBRE Residential Management K.K. ("Asset Management Company"), to which New City Residence Investment Corporation ("NCRI") consigns asset management, resolved at a meeting of its board of directors held on March 26, 2008 to change its internal organization and to adopt an executive officer system. Brief details are as follows.

1. Organizational Change (effective April 1, 2008)

(1) Objective of Organizational Change

The Asset Management Company decided to reorganize its organization and review some of the operations it oversees with the objective of reinforcing its organizational structure and heightening its operational efficiency. The existing divisions the Investment & Asset Management Division, Finance Division and Administration Division were integrated and reorganized to form the Investment & Asset Management Division, Finance Division and Administration Department, respectively. The result is a change from an organizational structure based on three divisions to an organizational structure based on two divisions. This change is intended to establish and reinforce an organizational structure that is capable of responding to changes in the harsh environment.

(2) Description of Primary Organizational Change

• The Operational Planning Department of the Investment & Asset Management Division will undergo developments and be reorganized as the Planning Department of the Investment & Asset Management Division, which will additionally be responsible for corporate planning functions.

- The Research & IR Department of the Investment & Asset Management Division will become the IR Department of the Investment & Asset Management Division and specialize in responding to investors and other IR matters.
- The Planning Department of the Administration Division will become the Capital Strategy Department of the Finance Division to centralize equity and debt financing operations to the Finance Division.
- The Administration Department of the Administration Division will be reorganized as the Administration Department to reinforce human resource operations.

2. Adoption of Executive Officer System (effective April 1, 2008)

The Asset Management Company decided to adopt an executive officer system to achieve prompt and efficient corporate management by clearly separating the corporate management decision-making and execution of operations, as well as to reinforce the Asset Management Company's competitiveness by appointing outstanding personnel in carrying out operations as executive officers.
