[Explanation of Entries in Table Above]

The summary of the respective real estate in trust is the information as of June 30, 2011, unless otherwise specified.

a. Explanation of “Name and Location, etc. of Respective Real Estate”

- (i) “Present titleholder” is the parties that sold the real estate, etc. to BLife, and “Most recent previous titleholder” is the previous titleholder.
- (ii) “Location (Lot number)” is the lot number as indicated in the register, and “Location (Residence indication)” is the residence indication of the asset to be acquired as indicated in the register (for properties without residence indication, the location of the building is as indicated in the register (only one location is indicated for properties that have several locations)).
- (iii) “Form of ownership” for the land and building are the kind of rights held by the trustee for the asset scheduled for acquisition.
- (iv) “Site area” for the land is the area of the land recorded in the register.

This English language notice is a translation of the Japanese language notice issued on the same day and was prepared solely for the convenience of, and reference by, overseas investors. Blife makes no warranties as to its accuracy or completeness.

- (v) "Zoning" for the land is the zoning provided in Article 8, Paragraph 1, Item 1 of the City Planning Act.
- (vi) "Building coverage ratio" for the land is the ratio of the building area of the building to the site area as stipulated in Article 53 of the Building Standards Act and is the maximum figure of the building coverage ratio determined by city planning in accordance with the zoning, etc. (designated building coverage ratio). Designated building coverage ratios may be relaxed/increased, or decreased, since the building is a fireproof building in a fire prevention district, or for other reasons. Therefore it may differ from the actual building coverage ratio to be applied.
- (vii) "Floor area ratio" for the land is the ratio of the total floor area of the building to the site area as stipulated in Article 52 of the Building Standards Act and is the maximum figure of the floor area ratio determined by city planning in accordance with the zoning, etc. (designated floor area ratio). Designated floor area ratios may be relaxed / increased, or decreased, since the width of the road adjacent to the site, or for other reasons. Therefore it may defer from the actual floor area ratio to be applied.
- (viii) "Usage" for the building is the primary use out of the types recorded in the register.
- (ix) "Total floor area" for the building is the sum total of the floor area recorded in the register.
- (x) "Structure / Number of floors" for the building is the structure recorded in the register.
"Structure / Number of floors" entries use the following acronyms.
RC: Reinforced concrete structure      SRC: Steel reinforced concrete structure      S: Steel framed structure
- (xi) "Construction completion date" for the building is when construction was completed as recorded in the register.

b. Explanation of "Overview of Leasing"

- (i) "Overview of Leasing" numerical figures and information are based on information as of June 30, 2011 and have been derived based on numerical figures and information granted us from the previous owner of the asset scheduled for acquisition.
- (ii) "Total number of tenants" enters the number of tenants as 1 if there is a master lease agreement concluded with the sublessee. In the foregoing case, the number of leased units is calculated on the assumption that consent for the sublessee to become the lessor has been obtained from all end-tenants. The entry is 1 tenant when 1 party leases multiple rental units.
- (iii) "Number of leasable units" is the number of units of the asset scheduled for acquisition that is leasable.
- (iv) "Number of leased units" is the number of units for which a lease agreement has been concluded with an end-tenant for the asset scheduled for acquisition as of June 30, 2011.
- (v) "Leasable floor area" is the floor area of the real estate in trust that is leasable based on information as of June 30, 2011.
- (vi) "Leased floor area" is the sum total of the floor area of the asset scheduled for acquisition entered in the lease contract concluded with end-tenants as of June 30, 2011. However, where there is clearly an error in the lease contract entry, that based on information received from the previous titleholder of the acquired asset, completion drawings, etc. is shown.
- (vii) "Monthly rent (incl. common area charges)" is, in principle, the sum total amount of the monthly rent of the asset scheduled for acquisition (including common area charges, but excluding the monthly use fees for parking space, trunk room and other ancillary facilities) entered in the lease contract concluded with end-tenants as of June 30, 2011, excluding consumption taxes, etc. and rounded down to the nearest thousand yen.
- (viii) "Deposits, guarantees, etc." is, in principle, the sum total amount of the deposits, guarantees, etc. of the asset scheduled for acquisition that must be returned to end-tenants based on the lease contract concluded with end-tenants as of June 30, 2011, rounded down to the nearest thousand yen.
- (ix) "Occupancy rate (based on floor area)" is the ratio of leased floor area to leasable floor area of the asset scheduled for acquisition, rounded to one decimal place.
- (x) "Occupancy rate (based on number of units)" is the ratio of the number of leased units to the number of leasable units of the asset scheduled for acquisition, rounded to one decimal place.
- (xi) "Property management company" is the property management company that, as of today, is delegated property management services for the asset scheduled for acquisition.
- (xii) "Sublessee" is the lessee that has a lease agreement concluded with the Present titleholder for the purpose of subleasing to third parties.
- (xiii) "Sublease type" is "Pass-through type" when the master lease agreement concluded is not one based on payment of a guaranteed amount of rent, while it is "Rent-guaranteed type" when the master lease agreement concluded is one based on payment of a guaranteed amount of rent. With "Pass-through type," rent is received only when subleasing actually takes place.

c. Explanation of "Breakdown of Residential Unit Type"

- (i) "Breakdown of Residential Unit Type" is based on the following classification.

	Exclusive-use floor area
Single Type	30m <sup>2</sup> or less
DINKS Type	70m <sup>2</sup> or less, but over 30m <sup>2</sup>
Family Type	100m <sup>2</sup> or less, but over 70m <sup>2</sup>
Large Type	Over 100m <sup>2</sup>

- (ii) "As a percentage of total number of units" is the ratio of the number of leasable units of the residential unit type to the number of leasable units of the asset scheduled for acquisition, rounded to one decimal place. Accordingly, the sum total of the entered percentages does not necessarily add up to 100.0%.
- (iii) "As a percentage of total floor area" is the ratio of the leasable floor area of the residential unit type to the number of leasable units of the asset scheduled for acquisition, rounded to one decimal place. Accordingly, the sum total of the entered percentages does not necessarily add up to 100.0%.

d. Explanation of "Engineering Report"

This English language notice is a translation of the Japanese language notice issued on the same day and was prepared solely for the convenience of, and reference by, overseas investors. Blife makes no warranties as to its accuracy or completeness.

- (i) “Engineering Report” is based on the entries in the engineering report prepared for the asset scheduled for acquisition.
- (ii) “Earthquake probable maximum loss” is based on the entries in the earthquake risk analysis report. The earthquake risk analysis is computed by Engineering & Risk Services Corporation and OYO RMS Corporation using the natural disaster risk analysis software RiskLink. In the analysis, the amount and probability of the probable maximum loss that buildings may suffer from an earthquake are computed based on the results of a comprehensive evaluation, including earthquake hazards and ground conditions, by evaluating the earthquake resistance of buildings derived from a qualitative judgment made from drawings (refers to general architectural drawings, structural drawings, structural calculation documents, etc.) and quantitative analysis using proprietary structural evaluation approaches. The analysis results represent the probable maximum loss from an earthquake as being the amount of probable loss of damage that may result from an earthquake having a 10% probability of occurring within the useful life of a building (50 years) (0.21% annual exceedance probability; 475-year return period) expressed as a percentage (%) of the replacement cost (Note).
However, the amount of probable loss is in relation to direct loss on only the building (structural member, non-structural member, and building equipment) caused by seismic motion. The amount does not account for indirect damages, such as equipment, furniture, fixture and other damages, loss caused by water or fire after an earthquake, compensation for victims, and operating losses due to the suspension of business.
- (Note) Replacement cost: Refers to the expenses that will be incurred if the existing building is to be newly constructed at the time of investigation.

e. Explanation of “Other Information”

“Other Information” provides an explanation of matters that need to be noted with respect to the entries of the items in the summary of the asset scheduled for acquisition.

f. Explanation of “Location Environment and Other Property Characteristics”

“Location Environment and Other Property Characteristics” is, in principle, based on the entries of real estate appraisal reports for the asset scheduled for acquisition.

g. Explanation of “Matters of Special Note”

“Special Notation” presents matters recognized to be of importance in terms of the rights, use, etc. of assets, as well as matters recognized to be of importance in consideration of the degree of impact on the appraised value, profitability and appropriation of assets, including the following matters.

- (i) Significant limitations or restrictions by laws, ordinances, rules and regulations
- (ii) Significant burdens or limitations pertaining to rights, etc.
- (iii) Significant cases where there are buildings, etc. crossing the boundaries of real estate in trust and cases where there are issues with boundary confirmation, etc.; and related arrangements, etc.
- (iv) Significant agreements, arrangements, etc. made with co-owners or condominium unit owners

(Note 1) Under “Area,” “Area 1” refers to the Chiyoda, Chuo, Minato, Shibuya and Shinjuku Wards, “Area 2” refers to the wards of Tokyo excluding “Area 1,” “Area 3” refers to the Tokyo metropolitan area (Tokyo (excluding “Areas 1” and “Area 2”), Kanagawa, Saitama and Chiba Prefectures), and “Area 4” refers to other cities (areas with populations of approximately 100,000 people or more).

(Note 2) Under “Property Name,” “NCR” is the acronym for “New City Residence” and “PT” for “Park Terrace.”

(Note 3) “Acquisition Date” is entered as the effective date of the merger (April 1, 2010) for properties that were held by the former New City Residence Investment Corporation.

(Note 4) “Acquisition Price” is excluding such amounts as expenses related to acquisition, reimbursement of taxes and dues, etc., and consumption taxes. For properties that were held by the former New City Residence Investment Corporation, the price at which the properties were succeeded at the time of the merger (the appraisal value as of the end of February 2010) is shown. Amounts are rounded to the nearest million yen.

(Note 5) “Investment Share” is the ratio of the acquisition price to the total amount of acquisition prices, rounded to one decimal place.
